

Speaker Profile

Johannes Fresner

Stenum

Short CV

Dr. Johannes Fresner is a chemical engineer. He has worked in resource efficiency, cleaner production, energy efficiency, innovation management, environmental management, quality management, energy management since 1991. He has consulted about 400 companies in 30 countries. He has worked in Austria, Czech Republic, Slovakia, Slovenia, Croatia, Hungary, Serbia, Kosovo, Ukraine, Moldova, Macedonia, Russia, Finland, Kazakhstan, Lebanon, India, Korea, Vietnam, Nepal, Bhutan, Sri Lanka, China, Mauritius, South Africa, Ethiopia, Uganda, Rwanda, Ghana, Brasil, Colombia, Nicaragua, Costa Rica, Honduras, El Salvador. He has supported UNIDO's National Cleaner Production Center Programme since 1995, working for a majority of their centers. He has a comprehensive record in developing tools and materials for UNEP and UNIDO (UNEP PRESME toolkit and UNIDO Train the trainers toolkit) and training. He was awarded the Austrian National Award for environmental technology in 2008 for a zero emission programme for the surface treatment sector. He is author to about 50 peer reviewed publications and has contributed to four books. He has worked as a mentor for five start up companies.

Contribution Keywords

Within the joint presentation with Vladimir Dobes, Johannes Fresner will present experiences with the pilot testing of the EDIT Value Tool in Austria. The worksheets and questions surfaced several potentials on the levels of the strategy, organisation, processes and product design.

Managing Director

•Address

A-8051 Graz, Anton Kleinoscheggstraße 21

•Phone

+ 43 316 367156

•E-Mail

fresner@stenum.at

•Web

<http://www.stenum.at>